second in five outings), had a career-high 14 rebounds, had five assists and two steals • Led all scorers with 21 points in the loss to UCLA • Was 7 for 12 from the field (including 3 of 6 from three-point range) and had two steals • Scored 13 of his 21 points in the second half • Hit two free throws in the final minute to cut UCLA's lead to 69-68.

Had 14 points, eight rebounds, four assists and three steals on Jan. 22 vs. Florida State • Had 11 points, a game-high 12 rebounds and five assists in the Jan. 27 win over Maryland • Led all scorers with 20 points in the win at Georgia Tech • Was 8 for 8 from the free throw line at Tech • Also hit a pair of three-pointers, including a key one in the second half that gave the Tar Heels a 9-point lead for the first time • Had 12 points, nine rebounds and four assists versus Duke on Feb. 3 • Had 12 points and 13 rebounds and five assists against Wake Forest on Feb. 12 • Led Carolina with 17 points and nine rebounds on Feb. 20 vs. Virginia • Had 15 points and a career-high seven assists in the win at Florida State • Led Carolina with 14 points and added seven rebounds and five assists in the ACC Tournament versus Wake Forest.

Had back surgery in March 1999 to repair two herniated discs.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1998-99)

Played in 26 of the 34 games • Averaged 9.1 points and 4.1 rebounds per game • Led the team in free throw percentage at .854 • He converted 76 of 89 attempts • Was second in the Atlantic Coast Conference in free throw shooting percentage • Donald Hand of Virginia shot a league-leading .862 • Only the second Tar Heel to lead the team in free throw shooting as a freshman • Curtis Hunter accomplished the feat in 1982-83.

Missed eight games, due mainly to injuries • Did not play against Dartmouth due to an illness in his family, missed six games in late-January/mid-February due to mononucleosis, and did not play against Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament because of a back strain.

Battled through a disk problem all season • Fell on his back taking a charge in the UNC Charlotte, initially aggravating his back condition • Took a hard fall in practice two days before the regular-season finale against Duke • That caused him to miss the ACC Tournament opener against Georgia Tech.

Returned to action against fifth-ranked Maryland in the ACC semifinals and scored 13 points in the upset win • He was 5 for 6 from the field, including 3 for 3 from three-point range • However, he fell hard on his back attempting to grab a rebound and did not play the final 14:09 • In the championship game against Duke, he did not score in limited action • He was able to play just four minutes in the NCAA Tournament against Weber State.

Shared team-scoring honors with 15 points and was 7 of 8 from the free throw line in the home win over NC State • His three-point basket with 9:49 remaining cut the Wolfpack lead to one point • Sank four free throws in overtime to lead Carolina to a 68-65 win over Wake Forest on Feb. 23.

Scored a season-high 16 points in back-to-back games against Old Dominion and the College of Charleston and was named the Most Valuable Player of the Food Lion MVP Classic • Was 6 of 7 from the field against ODU, where his father, Jeff, is the head coach, and 4 of 5 against College of Charleston.

Hit three three-point field goals in Carolina's 89-76 loss vs. Maryland on Jan. 13.

Scored 11 points, including several crucial free throws, in Carolina's 77-72 win vs. Louisville • In fact, Capel was 9 of 10 from the free throw line against the Cardinals.

PREP

Attended St. John's at Prospect Hall in Frederick, Md. • Played for Coach Stu Vetter, who also coached former Tar Heels Mike Pepper, George Lynch and Serge Zwikker in high school • Helped lead St. John's to USA Today's 1998 high school national championship • Two-time team captain at St. John's • Attended Chesapeake Indian River High in Virginia as a freshman and sophomore • In the eighth grade, he played on the varsity at Greensboro (N.C.) Day School • At the time his dad was the head coach at N.C. A&T • First-team All-America as a senior by Street & Smith's • Second-team Parade and Basketball Times All-America • Finalist for the Naismith Prep Player of the Year Award • Virginia Player of the Year as a sophomore and Maryland Private School Player of the Year as a junior • Averaged 20.1 points, 12.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game as a senior and 20.2 points, 9.0 rebounds and 4.2 assists a contest as a junior • Was Most Valuable Player at eight different high school tournaments • Scored 22 points in the McDonald's All-Star Game • Played for the USA Basketball Junior National Team in the Nike Hoop Summit • Teamed with Ronald Curry to win the AAU Junior Olympic 19-and-under national championship in 1998 and the under-17 title in 1997 • His older brother, Jeff, played at Duke from 1993-97 and captained the Blue Devils as a senior • His dad, Jeff Sr., is the head coach at Old Dominion • Jeff Jr. is now a member of his dad's staff at ODU.

Hunter Huss

■ Hopes to be fully recovered from a sophomore season limited by illness and injury.

■ Can be one of the top post players in the ACC.

■ Carolina went 12-3 when he scored in double figures in 1999-2000.

KRIS LANG

Talented low-post player who looks to bounce back from a sophomore season that was limited by illness and injury • Was forced to overcome a wide array of physical ailments that kept him less than full strength the entire season • Shows great touch shooting jump hooks with either hand • Working hard on his mid-range offense • Tenacious defensive rebounder • Again has worked hard in the offseason to be in better physical condition that will allow him to play longer stretches • Gives tremendous effort every time he is on the floor • Should develop into one of the team's veteran leaders this year • Shooting 54.4 percent from the floor and averaging 9.5 points and 4.8 rebounds in his career • Has scored in double figures 33 times and has three double-doubles • Career scoring high of 21 vs. Georgia in the 1998 Preseason NIT.

Played in 35 of the 36 games, despite a myriad of illnesses and injuries that hampered his conditioning and practice time • Carolina was 12-3 when Lang scored in double figures • Came down with a virus late in the summer that put him in the hospital for a week and caused him to lose 22 pounds • That illness and shin splints he encountered after returning to practice in late October cut his playing time and effectiveness in the first semester • Sprained his right knee in the first half of the Cincinnati game and was held out of the Tennessee Tech contest for precautionary reasons • Fought a stomach bug in late January that caused him to miss the final minutes of a five-point loss to Florida State • Averaged 8.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game • Shot 50.8 percent from the floor • Named UNC's best screener after the season by the coaching staff.

Earned Tournament MVP honors at the Food Lion MVP Classic in Charlotte on December 3-4 • Had 15 points and three rebounds against College of Charleston and 16 points and four rebounds in the finals against UNLV • Made 12 of 16 shots from the floor and 7 of 8 free throws in the two games • Played 35 combined minutes in the two games • Was 10 for 10 from the free throw line against NC State (Jan. 8) • Led Carolina in scoring (14) and rebounding (11) at Wake Forest, recording the third double-double of his career • Had 13 points and six rebounds in the win over Maryland on Jan. 27 • Had six rebounds and played outstanding defense in the win at Georgia Tech • Defended Jason Collier for much of the contest and helped limit the Yellow Jacket standout to 6 of 16 shooting • Had 15 points (11 in the second half and overtime) and eight rebounds vs. Duke on Feb. 3 • Was 7 of 14 from the floor against Duke • Scored 12 points against Georgia Tech on March 1 despite not playing in overtime after suffering a strained left quadricep late in the game • Had 11 points and seven rebounds in the NCAA Tournament win over Missouri (first round) • Had 11 points and helped limit Stanford senior Mark Madsen to 2 of 7 shooting and five points in the NCAA second round • Scored 10 points in the regional semifinal win over Tennessee • Suffered a sprained right ankle in the first half of the regional final win over Tulsa • He returned later in the first half, but was limited to four points and three rebounds in 18 minutes of action.

Bob Donovan

Selected to the Atlantic Coast Conference's All-Freshman Team • He was the fifth UNC player to make that team since it began in the mid-1990s (since joined by Joseph Forte) • Other selections include Rasheed Wallace and Jerry Stackhouse in 1994, Antawn Jamison in 1996 and Ed Cota in 1997 • Was one of four Tar Heels to play in all 34 games • Averaged 10.6 points and 5.4 rebounds per game • Scored in double figures 18 times, including 11 of the last 15 games.

College Hoops Insider named Lang to its national All-Freshman Team • He was one of 15 players on the team, including ACC rookies Corey Maggette of Duke and Chris Williams of Virginia • Shot over 50 percent from the field in 24 games and finished the year shooting 57.8 percent from the field • Made 148 of his 256 field goal attempts.

Scored 11 points and added six rebounds in NCAA Tournament loss to Weber State • In the ACC Tournament, he scored 11 vs. Georgia Tech, nine vs. Maryland in the semifinal and 12 vs. Duke in the championship game • Was 6 for 9 from the floor in the ACC title game.

Shot 84.2 percent from the field (16 of 19) and averaged 18.5 points and seven rebounds to earn ACC Rookie of the Week honors for the week of Feb. 1-7 • Was 7 for 7 from the field and scored 16 points and had eight rebounds in the loss at Clemson • In the Tar Heels' 98-64 win over Florida State, he matched his career high with 21 points and also had six rebounds.

Recorded his second career double-double in the Jan. 31 win over Georgia Tech • He led UNC with 17 points and led all players with 11 rebounds • Posted his first double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds in Carolina's 82-68 win at Dartmouth • Made nine field goals in 12 attempts and blocked three shots • Scored a season-high 21 points in Carolina's 65-58 win over Georgia in the Preseason NIT quarterfinal • With just 40 seconds remaining in the game, he scored one of the game's biggest buckets, dunking Ed Cota's pass for a four-point UNC lead • Played great defense and had seven rebounds in the Tar Heels' 57-49 victory over Stanford in the Preseason NIT final.

He converted two three-point plays late in regulation and in overtime of Carolina's win over UNC Charlotte • With 1:17 remaining in regulation and Carolina trailing by three, Okulaja fed Lang a perfect baseline bounce pass that he converted into a layup • He was fouled on the play and completed the three-point play to tie the game at 64 • In overtime, he put the Tar Heels up by three with 4:23 left on another three-point play.

PREP

Attended Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia • Played for Coach Butch Blalock • Scored 16 points and grabbed six rebounds in the North Carolina Coaches High School All-Star Game • Named Mr. Basketball in the state by The Charlotte Observer • Is the fourth player to have been
